(b) if so, the details thereof and Government's response thereto?

THE MINISTER OF CULTURE (SHRI S. JAIPAL REDDY): (a) Yes, Sir. The Uttar Pradesh Sunni Central Wakf Board has issued a notice for registration of Maqbara Shahjahan and Mumtaj Mahal property known as "Taj Mahal, Agra" under the provision of Section 36 of the Wafk Act, 1995. (Central Act 43 of 1995)

(b) Archaeological Survey of India is of the view that any attempt of registration of Taj Mahal as wakf property by way of issuance of the notice is absolutely illegal, without jurisdiction and contrary to the provision of the said Act. The Central Government has a sovereign right to possess and manage centrally protected monuments and sites of national importance in the country and the authorities of the Wafk Board can not interfere with the same.

Under the provision of the Ancient Monuments Preservation Act, 1904, the preliminary notification No. 1412M dated 18.11.1920 was published in the United Provinces Gazette on 20th November, 1920 and the final notification was issued vide No. 1645M/1133 dated 22.12.1920 to declare Taj Mahal, Agra as a protected monuments.

The Taj Mahal, Agra is not only a centrally protected monument and a cultural heritage of national importance but also has been declared by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site.
